PROFILE: Experienced policy advisor with a strong background in statistics and econometrics applied to economic development. In over 15 years of experience, in Italy and abroad, I have evaluated the feasibility and impact of policies and financial instruments promoting inclusive and sustainable access to infrastructure services (housing, mobility, water and sanitation, energy, education and health).

GOAL: I am currently pursuing opportunities to apply my policy analysis and project management skills towards the implementation and evaluation of national & EU Structural and Investment Funds (PNRR, Next Generation EU, ERDF, ESF, CF, etc).
